

Umoja

Community Development Projects

Building Lives

Call for Sponsors!

Let's fight Period Poverty!

1 Kit-1 Girl-1 Year

Give a girl an opportunity to stay in school; Sponsor a girl for a year.

It is estimated that 1 in 10 girls in Africa will miss school due to period poverty.

ABOUT US

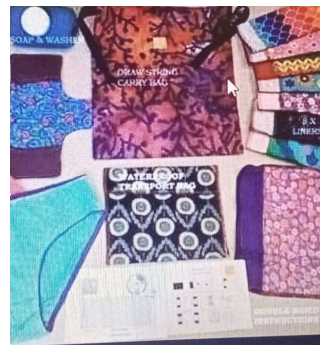

Umoja Women Empowerment Program (UMOJA WEP); is a project of Umoja Community Development Projects, (UCDP) is making reusable sanitary pads which are not only safe to use but also environmentally friendly

The material used to make the pads are easy to clean, quick-drying, and have a lifetime of 1 year,

UMOJA WEP; also provides training for girls and women on the following:

- Menstrual Health & Hygiene - demystifying myths, cultural beliefs, misconceptions, and misinformation on periods
- Making reusable sanitary pads and many other programmes

www.umojacdp.org.uk
admin@umojacdp.co.ke
info.safrika@umojacdp.co.ke

1.

KES.1200.00
 R160.00
 £9.00

2.

KES.850.00
 R120.00
 £6.00

Benefits of Reusable Sanitary Pads

- Better Health
- Access to Education
- Low Cost
- Environmentally Friendly

Donate with PayPal

"Meeting the hygiene needs of all adolescent girls is a fundamental issue of human rights, dignity, and public health"

Sanjay Wijesekera

(Former UNICEF Chief of Water, Sanitation and Hygiene)